Dear Jonathan,

Hope you are feeling better.

Please see our proposal (attached) and what will go onto the website. The print based resource pack will share the same content (minus the multimedia video) and will be multilingual.

The budget division is only indicative as it is getting cheaper to maintain a website but Research Assistant's wages go up!

Let us know your feedback and we are happy to set up a video conference (if that suits you better).

Best,
Alice
