Biography

Dr Danijel Džino is a Senior Lecturer in the Department of History and Archaeology. He completed his BA (Hons) (1997-2000), MA (2001) and PhD (2002-2005) in Classics at the University of Adelaide. He was a Visiting Research Fellow at the University of Adelaide (2006-2009) until moving to Macquarie University to start work on his ARC postdoctoral grant (2010-2014).

As Croatian himself, Dr Džino is involved in different projects with scholars in Croatia - currently he is partner-investigator on the project Among gods and men - The cults and the population of Roman Dalmatia according to the votive inscriptions led by Dr Ljubica Perinić from Croatian Academy of Sciences and Arts, financed by Croatian Science Foundation. He also maintains active collaboration with the Centre for Croatian Studies at Macquarie University, including co-editorship of the journal Croatian Studies Review.

Dr Džino also participates in the Project Varvaria-Breberium-Bribir. The excavations are conducted by Macquarie University at the site Bribirska glavica near Skradin in Croatia in partnership with the Museum of Croatian Archaeological Monuments (Muzej Hrvatskih arheoloških spomenika), from Split, Šibenik City Museum and Theologiske Meningshsfakultat from Oslo.
